

RECRUITMENT OF NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS TO THE TENNIS WEST OF SCOTLAND BOARD

The competition programme organised by Tennis West of Scotland has expanded hugely in recent years offering regular league, cup and tournament competition for players of all ages. Tennis West of Scotland also currently operates a county training programme for nearly 100 young players and links closely with key clubs, local universities and Tennis Scotland via a local player development programme.

As a result of this increased activity and with the retiral of a number of Directors, Tennis West of Scotland invites applications to be a member of its Board. Non-Executive Directors will have a specific area of responsibility within the company as well as fulfilling the fiduciary duties of a Director.

These areas are listed below and application submitted should state your interest or interests.

Applications are invited from people with tennis playing experience and/or a good knowledge of tennis competition who have the skills and/or knowledge – especially in the areas listed below - to contribute to the continued success of the organisation, a company limited by guarantee. Tennis West of Scotland welcomes applications from all sectors of the community regardless of background. Appointments will be made on merit

- Web site development and management
- Junior Player Development
- Sponsorship
- Seniors' tennis

If you think that you have skills which you could offer to the Board, please apply by email to the President, Claire Kinloch Anderson, by 10 am on Monday 16th December briefly outlining what skills you have to benefit the company.

All applications will be acknowledged and treated in confidence.

Some suitable applicants may then be invited to have an informal conversation in January 2025 with representatives of the current Board.

Please note that the number of available positions on the Board is limited by the company's Articles of Association however it is hoped that a number of unsuccessful applicants with appropriate skills could be invited to take on specific roles within the organisation.
